2. [REDACTED] returned only 10 days ago from a 2-week period of sick leave. Even before he took this leave the Information Control Section was seriously overloaded. Since returning to duty, Mr. [REDACTED] has been working overtime in order to reduce the backlog accumulated within his area of responsibility. He is also currently engaged in processing a large volume of map materials which relate to the foreign exchange program and need expeditious handling. At the same time he is responsible for processing materials being received through OO channels where delay can cause serious difficulties.

3. To remove [REDACTED] from duty on October 2 and days following, would seriously hinder the efficient operation of this Section, with consequent repercussions throughout the Geographic Division.
